

1 DELEGATE GILCHRIST: At the risk of being
2 involved in semantics with Delegate Marion's suggestion a
3 little while ago, I would like to suggest, that I sent back
4 for Delegate Stern's Dictionary and I find that it says,
5 with respect to duty, that this is the action required by 6 one's position or occupation, and when you turn to power, 7 you find it to be a totally different thing, and power is 8 possession of control, authority or influence over others.

9 I suggest that the Committee's language in the 10 recommendation is a very different thing from the Committee's 11 language in its commentary; that if you intend to produce
12 a result which is contained in a commentary, you not only 13 need to have duties in the recommendation, you need to have 14 powers, and I don't know of any place where powers are 15 delegated to Lieutenant Governors. They are generally duties.

16 THE CHAIRMAN: Delegate Morgan.

17 DELEGATE MORGAN: Mr. President, I think this 18 can probably all be ended by agreeing, as I said I would,
19 to the Chabot Amendment, since the Governor can accomplish 20 this under another section of the Executive Article. In 21 any event, by giving the Lieutenant Governor notification
